Children who:

- ▪ Have a nervous system problem, such as ADD/ADHD, 3
- ▪ Have a learning disability, 3
- ▪ Have an intellectual disability, 3
- ▪ Have a development delay, 3
- ▪ Have depression, 3
- ▪ Have frequent or severe headaches, 3
- ▪ Have diabetes, 3
- ▪ Have cystic fibrosis (no severity), 3
- ▪ Have sickle cell anemia, thalassemia, or hemophilia, 3
- ▪ Have bleeding gums, 3
- ▪ Have vision problems

Prevalence and severity of current health and functional problems:

- ▪ Vision problems
- ▪ Hearing problem
- ▪ ADD/ADHD
- ▪ Learning disability
- ▪ Intellectual disability
- ▪ Development delay
- ▪ Depression
- ▪ Frequent or severe headaches
- ▪ Diabetes
- ▪ Cystic fibrosis

Individual flourishing items for young children:

- ▪ Bernstein scale of resilience items for children (no severity)

Individual flourishing items for children and adolescents:

- ▪ Bernstein scale of resilience items for adolescents (no severity)

Individual health conditions:

- ▪ Blood disorders
- ▪ Tooth decay
- ▪ Preconceived conditions
- ▪ Genetically determined conditions

Health problems:

- ▪ Difficulties with eating or swallowing
- ▪ Difficulties with digestion
- ▪ Difficulties with sleep
- ▪ Difficulties with behavior
- ▪ Difficulties with emotions
- ▪ Difficulties with learning

Health Insurance Coverage:

- ▪ Not covered by health insurance due to change in employment status
- ▪ Not covered by health insurance due to ineligibility
- ▪ Not covered by health insurance due to cost
- ▪ Not covered by health insurance due to lack of access
- ▪ Not covered by health insurance due to coverage
- ▪ Not covered by health insurance due to other reasons

Components of medical care:

- ▪ Doctors worked with parents to decide together health care
- ▪ Doctors made it easy for parents to raise concerns or questions
- ▪ Doctors provided information specific to parents' concerns
- ▪ Doctors helped parents to feel like partners in care

Financial hardships:

- ▪ Dropped health insurance coverage because choice of health plan was inadequate
- ▪ Dropped health insurance coverage because cost of health care providers was too high
- ▪ Dropped health insurance coverage because no one in the family could afford
- ▪ Dropped health insurance coverage because no one in the family could afford the costs
- ▪ Dropped health insurance coverage because of problems with application or renewal process
- ▪ Dropped health insurance coverage because of problems with application or renewal process

Community and school:

- ▪ Children who care about doing well in school
- ▪ Children who do all required homework

Additional items related to youth transition to adult health care:

- ▪ Doctors worked with the child to make positive choices about their health
- ▪ Youth received a summary of their medical history
- ▪ Youth currently has a plan of care to meet their health goals and needs
- ▪ Youth has access to the plan of care
- ▪ The plan of care addresses transition to adult health care provider
- ▪ Discussed child's health insurance coverage into adulthood

Additional items related to youth transition to adult health care:

- ▪ Doctor worked with the child to make positive choices about their health
- ▪ Youth received a summary of their medical history
- ▪ Youth currently has a plan of care to meet their health goals and needs
- ▪ Youth has access to the plan of care
- ▪ The plan of care addresses transition to adult health care provider
- ▪ Discussed child's health insurance coverage into adulthood

Reasons for foregone health care:

- ▪ Due to affordability
- ▪ Due to lack of access
- ▪ Due to problems getting an appointment
- ▪ Due to problems getting transportation or care
- ▪ Because office was not open
- ▪ Due to cost

Neighborhood amenities:

- ▪ Sidewalks or walking paths
- ▪ Park or playground
- ▪ A recreation center, community center, or boys' and girls' club
- ▪ A library or bookstore

This project is supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) under grant number U58TS00011. This information or content and conclusions are those of the author and should not be construed as the official position or policy of, nor should any endorsements be inferred by HRSA, HHS, or the U.S. Government.